ORGANIZING SPACE to free your life.

WHO are we?

- Hassle Free Space provides individualized, non-judgmental and confidential organizing services designed to make changes in both your living space and in your life.

WHY are we needed?

We work with you to make your space functionally efficient, safe, healthy and visually appealing. Examples of the clients we serve include:

- People who would like to organize their living space but just need help getting started with the process.
- Seniors moving to a smaller space that need to pare down, lighten up and pack.
- Family and friends who handle an estate that must sort or transfer inherited property.
- People who have lived in one place a long time that have never sorted through their belongings and would like help doing so.
- Collectors that wish to better display and use their possessions in the present.
- Homebound individuals that require unique living arrangements to accommodate special needs or physical conditions.
- People that need help showcasing and staging a home prior to sale.

WHAT do we do?

- Our method is tailored to the individual and focuses on building consistency between who you are and how you live in your space. Together we'll work on:
